

CERES MEMORIAL GATES, 1937

POST CARD

To mark the Centenary of Anzac, the Ceres Memorial Gates were re-constructed to replicate the original 1937 design. These gates were erected to honour those who fought in the Great War 1914-1918 and to the pioneers of the district.

The Ceres Community Association invites you to commemorate the opening of the Ceres Memorial Gates on Sunday, April 19, 2015 between 2 and 4pm at the corner of Barrabool and Cochranes Roads. Please call or text 0419 252 373 to confirm attendance for catering purposes.

Gold coin entry. Wreath laying welcome.
