

Late Private F. J. Flack.

The above is a photograph of the late Private J. F. Flack, 18th Battalion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flack, of Major's Creek, who was recently reported as having been killed in France. The deceased enlisted in January of last year.

Writing under date 6/10/17 to deceased's father, the Rev. W. N. Higgins, Chaplain, says:— "Your son went forward with the Battalion to take part in the Flanders offensive last week, and while moving forward was hit by the bursting of a shell, and died immediately. He was buried on the field, and we are arranging to erect a cross to the memory of those who fell on that occasion. With sincere sympathy from the officers and men of the battalion."

with sincere sympathy from the officers and men of the battalion."
