

The Anglo-Boer War Ceremonial Tree Planting

Ms Katy Gallagher, Chief Minister of the ACT, the National Boer War Memorial

Association ACT, RSL and Boer War descendants Tree Planting

Clanwilliam cedars in Forest 103. 26 June 2011.

On Sunday 26th June 2011, Ms Katy Gallagher, Chief Minister of the ACT, joined with members of the National Boer War Memorial Association ACT, RSL and ex-service organisations, Regional Mayors, Federal Government and National Arboretum representatives and Boer War descendants to plant Clanwilliam cedars in Forest 103 in memory of the almost 1,000 Australian service men and women who sacrificed their lives during the Boer War.

The critically endangered Clanwilliam cedar, Widdringtonia wallichii (formerly cedarbergensis), is native to South Africa, where 23,000 Australian served alongside 6,000 New Zealander service men and women during the 1899-1902 Anglo-Boer War.

The Clanwilliam cedar forest will continue to grow for many years, serving as a reminder of those who served and died during the Anglo-Boer War.
