

BRIAGOLONG HONOUR ROLL.UNVEILING CEREMONY.

The Honour Board unveiled at the Briagolong State school on Friday last, to which ceremony reference was made in our last issue, was greatly admired by the large gathering that attended to do honour to the lads of the district who responded to the Empire's call to duty. The Honour Board is of blackwood, with fiddleback panel, and contains 58 names, including 15 who died on service. No less than six sons of Mr. Whitelaw rallied round the Empire's flag in her hour of need, three of whom made the supreme sacrifice. The afternoon's arrangements were directed by Headmaster C. Booth and the school committee, with Mr. W. Kelly as chairman, who presided over the gathering. Photos. of Sgts. J., C., and R. A. Whitelaw, and Pte. Leslie C. Mills were also unveiled, which, with the Honour Board, were later in the afternoon placed in position in the school, where also are photos. of the boys who gave their lives for King and country. The Honour Board was unveiled by Master Alan Whitelaw, and the Last Post was sounded by Master Cyril Cruth. Addresses apropos of the occasion were delivered by the chairman (Mr. W. Kelly), Mr. J. W. M'Laenian, M.L.A., Messrs. Provan and Kelly, senr., and Mr. C. Booth, headmaster of the school.
