

CORRYONG.

(From a Correspondent.)

Recently there was averted what might have been a sad drowning fatality, by the timely appearance of Tom Finch, who arriving at "Death Trap," Lighthouse crossing found a lad and gent, who were out driving, in difficulties just above the whirlhole, their horses refusing to move. With Mr. Finch's assistance the animal was forced out and disaster averted.

Corryong had a narrow escape from a fire which, if it had got a hold would have endangered the whole town. It appears that a park from a chimney set the grass ablaze near Mr. J. Harris' home, and it was only through the strenuous work of many of the local residents that the blaze was got in hand.

Mr. J. D. Boyle, of Tiltalra, had the misfortune to have his home completely destroyed by fire. There was no one at home when the outbreak occurred, and the cause of the fire is unknown.

The honor board of the Corryong School is now an accomplished fact, and for the unveiling ceremony Sir Alexander Peacock is to be invited. The names are as follows:—Jones, James; Heath, W. C.; Bartlett, Albert; Masters, Louis W.; Hawkins, Ernest; Hayes, Thomas M.; Lukins, Charles; Hamilton, Hugh; Bartlett, Ivy (nurse); Seaton, Alexander; Greenhill, William; M'Innes, John; Hayes, Albert E.; Mackay, Norman; Taylor, Hugh; Hamilton, Charles (Cudgowa); Seaton, David; Hamilton, Allan (Cudgowa); Hamilton,

George; Griffiths, James; Hamilton, Gordon; Hamilton, Wallace; Waters, Alex.; Waters, Hugh; Burke, Bryan; Robertson, William; Johnson, Herbero; Venner, Alfred C.; Robertson, Noel; Braniff, John; Nankervis, Norman; Kaighin, Harry; Kaighin, Beryl.

John H.; Hamilton, Albert B.; Seaton, James; Hamilton, Joseph; Simpson, George; Fardon, Kinnon; Levett, William E. J.; Robinson, Claude; Lebner, Henry; Lebner Charles; Lennox, Bert. W. H.; M'Kenzie, R. F.; Evans, Albert; Simpson, Lionel; Jones, Clive; Williams, Wm.; Harris, Hugh; Hayes, William; Harris, Harold; Fetherstonbough, Cuthbert; Greenhill, Robert; Harris, Frederick; Crawford, Leslie; Hayes, Percy; Greenhill, John D.; Dawson, Roy; Harris, Cyril; Lennox, Horace; Campbell, John; Morgan, George; Griffiths, James; Hamilton, Gordon; Hamilton, Wallace; Waters,