

SERVICES AND MEETINGS

At West Hawthorn Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning a set of three large memorial windows will be unveiled and dedicated. The centre panel, "The Ascension," is in memory of the late Rev John Meers, who was minister of the Church for some years, and was previously minister of the Presbyterian Church at Dandenong. One side panel, "The Gift of the Holy Spirit," is in remembrance of the pioneers of the Church, and the other panel, "The Resurrection," is a memorial to the men and women who served in the last war.

The British and Foreign Bible Society will hold a Field Day in the City of Caulfield tomorrow. The Ministers' Fraternal of Caulfield and Elsternwick has arranged for a team of 10 speakers to take services in 10 churches. The services are a lead up to a public demonstration which will be held in the Caulfield Town Hall on October 7, when the drama, "The Entrance of Light," which deals with the translation work of the society, will be given by members of the Victorian Youth Auxiliary. The Rev W. H. Holloway, of Bible House, will conduct the service at Orrong rd Methodist Church in the morning and Kooyong rd Methodist Church in the evening.

Archbishop Booth will conduct Confirmation services at Holy Trinity, Oakleigh, on Monday at 8pm; St Andrew's, Brighton, on Tuesday at 3pm, and at St Paul's Cathedral on Wednesday at 8pm.

At a special service tomorrow night at West Coburg Baptist Church, Mrs G. E. Moore, on behalf of the Church, will present Mr B. Montgomery, chairman of Victorian Baptist Home Mission Committee, with a cheque for £234 to liquidate the debt on the Church property. The Rev R. F. Smith is the minister.

Mr J. Holloway, president of the Victorian Conference of Churches of Christ, will speak at the Dandenong Church tomorrow evening.

The Rev A. G. Harrison, superintendent of the Board of Social Services of the Presbyterian Church, will speak on the social service work of the Church at Sandringham Church tomorrow evening.

Rev Fathers H. Jordan, B. Curran,

Rev Fathers H. Jordan, B. Curran, and H. Thibault will be the preachers at the commemorative celebrations at the Carmelite Monastery, Kew, from September 28 to 30, to mark the 50th anniversary of the death of St Therese.

The annual demonstration of the Catholic Women's Social Guild will be held in St Patrick's Cathedral tomorrow. Archbishop Mannix will preside, and Rev Father Jordan will preach.

A course of lectures, beginning on September 23, will be given at Central Catholic Library by Mr S. Keon, MLA, Dr J. Catarinich, and Mrs T. J. Ryan.

Archbishop J. D. Simonds will administer Confirmation at East St Kilda tomorrow.

East St Kilda Congregational Church will hold its 64th Anniversary services tomorrow. Preachers will be the Rev L. S. Pearse at 11am, and the Rev L. C. Parkin, chairman of the Congregational Union, at 7pm. Mr J. M. Atkinson will speak at a PSA at 3pm.

The Rt Rev W. W. Ingram, Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Victoria, will preach at Donald tomorrow morning and at Birchip in the evening.

The Church of St Matthew, Ashburton, the newly formed Church of England, will be dedicated by Bishop McKie at 3.30pm tomorrow. The new church is at the corner of High st and Warrigal rd. The service will be attended by Mr McLaren, MLA; the Mayor and councillors of Camberwell, and clergy from adjoining and surrounding churches. Rev C. E. Smith is the vicar.