

UNVEILING GRANYA HONOR ROLL.

Granya hall was well-filled on Saturday night, 15th December, when the honor roll of volunteers who have gone to the front was unveiled. Mr. F. Cooper was in the chair. After the National Anthem had been sung,

The Chairman apologized for the absence of several gentlemen, and in the course of a short address referred to the sacrifices the men had made at the call of duty and how it behoved all to endeavor to live worthy of such men.

The school children then sang Kipling's "Lest we forget," after which Councillor P. Sutherland, who had been honored with the duty of unveiling the roll, addressed the gathering. He congratulated the people of Granya and district on being so splendidly represented at the front. Few places (if any) of a similar size could pride themselves on a greater number or finer lot of men who had answered their country's call. He spoke of the cheerfulness with which the men at the front underwent their trials and hardships—terrible as they were—and feelingly referred to those who had made the supreme sacrifice. He trusted that it would be possible for an honorable peace to be made soon, and that there would be a great welcome home in that hall at no distant date.

At the close of his address, Councillor Sutherland cut the cord holding the Union Jack, which then rose and revealed the names of those who were being honored that night, inscribed on a handsome board, as follow:—

Councillor Sutherland unveiled also a fine framed photograph of the volunteers.

Rev. R. Isherwood referred to the Union Jack as the symbol of freedom and liberty. The men who had made the supreme sacrifice had not died in vain. It would have been well had they returned, but, considering the cause for which they gave their lives—the cause of freedom and justice—was it not still well?

As a mark of reverence for the unreturning brave, the audience rose and stood silent for a short time.

The Chairman, in closing the proceedings, thanked all those who had taken part in the ceremony and helped to make it worthy of the occasion.

Musical items were rendered by Mrs. Miller and Miss Hore; also by the school children. The meeting concluded with the singing of "God bless our soldier men," followed by rousing cheers for men at the front.

The hall was well decorated with flags lent by Mr. Lyne, of Tallungatta.

GOOD LIXIMENT.—You will hunt a good while before you find a liniment that is equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm for muscular and rheumatic pains, for sprains and soreness of the muscles. In case of rheumatism and sciatica, it relieves the intense pain and makes sleep and rest possible. In case of sprains it relieves the soreness, and restores the parts to a healthy condition in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is equally valuable for lame back and all deep-seated and muscular pains.—Everywhere.
