

Myasys Honour Roll.

The Myasys honour board, a beautiful piece of workmanship, containing thirty-three names, was unveiled in the presence of a large gathering, including several returned heroes, by Mr. H. J. M. Campbell, M.L.A., assisted by Crs. Cope, Carter, and Malseed, the Revs. Williams and Apter, and Mr. N. G. Saunders. The speeches were appropriate, and very ably delivered. After the rendering of the National Anthem, the chairman (Mr. Thomas Malseed) apologised for the absence of Mr. Rodgers, M.H.R., Hon. E. J. White, M.L.C., Mr. Bailey, M.L.A., the Rev. Houston, and ex Private J. J. Sharrock. The latter was prevented from attending through ill health. The following programme was then gone through:—Pianoforte solo, "Battle March," Miss B. Malseed; speech, Cr. Cope; song, "Anzac," Miss S. Locker; speech, Cr. Carter; song, "Red Cross Sisters," Mr. Jas. Malseed; speech, Cr. Malseed; song, "Eternal Peace," Miss I. Malseed; unveiling of honour board, Mr. H. J. M. Campbell, M.L.A.; "God bless our splendid men"; chorus, "O God our help," school children; song, "My daddy's dressed in khaki," Miss M. Cottier; speech, Rev. Mr. Williams; song, "O dry those tears," Mrs. E. S. Collins; speech, Rev. Mr. Apter; song, "Tired," Mrs. T. W. Satchell; speech, Mr. N. G. Saunders; song, "The death on army," Mr. S. D. Rundell. A vote of thanks to the speakers was moved by Mr. D. H. Cannon, seconded by Mr. R. Malseed, and heartily responded to. After the rendering of the National Anthem tea was served, the proceeds being devoted to the Hamilton branch of the Y.M.C.A., which will benefit by £7.—"Spectator."
