

THE CHURCHES

Mission To Secondary Schools Opens Next Week

A mission to secondary schools is to be launched next week throughout New South Wales. It has been organised, as part of the Mission to the Nation, by the Rev. Dudley Hyde.

The Missioner to the Nation, the Rev. Alan Walker, will visit leading metropolitan schools.

For six weeks in preparation for the mission, clergy of all denominations have been giving a series of lessons planned to stimulate interest in the Christian faith.

The Mission to Schools will reach a climax on Sunday, August 15, the opening day of Education Week, when special schools services will be held in St. Andrew's Cathedral and other churches throughout the State.

GENERAL TO PREACH

The Dean of Sydney, the Very Rev. E. A. Pitt, will preach at St. Andrew's Cathedral to-morrow morning. At Evening Prayer the preacher will be Lieut.-General Sir Arthur Smith.

Sir Arthur Smith is president of the World Evangelical Fellowship and chairman of the Evangelical Alliance. He is keenly interested in the work of Dr. Barnardo's Homes, the Crusader Union, and the Inter-Varsity Fellowship. To-night at 8 o'clock he will address a youth rally at the Assembly Hall, Margaret Street.

The Primate, Dr. H. W. K. Mowll, will leave Sydney by air next Tuesday to attend the Anglican Congress at Minneapolis, U.S.A., and the meeting of the World Council of Churches at Evanston.

This afternoon at 4.30 Dr. Mowll will set the foundation-stone and dedicate St. James' Church Hall, Castlecrag. To-morrow, at 11 a.m., the first Sunday church service in the new hall will be held.

To-morrow at 2 p.m. Dr. Mowll will lay the foundation-stone of St. John's War Memorial Church, Maroubra. As a tribute to the rector, the Rev. W. P. Hart, M.C., who was chaplain of the 2/3 Battalion, the Maroubra-Kensington sub-branch of the R.S.L. will march to the ceremony.

Dr. Mowll will consecrate St. Alban's Church, Fivedock, to-morrow at 11 a.m.

p.m. the rector, the Rev. Norman Fox, will conduct a service of praise and thanksgiving.

The speaker at the Cathedral Businessmen's Luncheon Club on Tuesday will be Sir James Bissett.

The Dean of Sydney will speak at the lunch-hour service in the Cathedral on Wednesday at 1.15.

The Patronal Festival of St. James', King Street, will be celebrated to-morrow, St. James' Day. The Dean of Newcastle, the Very Rev. W. A. Hardie will preach at the choral Eucharist and again at festal evensong.

The Rev. Canon James Benson, of New Guinea, will preach at Christ Church St. Laurence solemn evensong to-morrow at 7.15.

The annual church parade of Sea Scouts and Sea Rangers will be held in the Naval Dockyard Chapel, Garden Island, to-morrow morning at 10.45. Chaplain G. Beatty, R.A.N., will conduct the service, to which the public is invited.

The Commonwealth secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, the Rev. H. M. Arrowsmith, will return next Friday after attending Bible Society conferences in Britain, Ireland, Holland, the U.S.A., Canada, Tokyo, and Hong Kong. He will speak to clergy and church workers at the Chapter House on Friday morning at 10.30.

ORDAINED TO-DAY

Fourteen students from St. Patrick's College, Manly, will be ordained to the priesthood by Cardinal Gilroy at St. Mary's Cathedral to-day at 8.30 a.m. Another 20 students are soon to be ordained, mostly by their own bishops.

Cardinal Gilroy will preside at bishops.

Cardinal Gilroy will preside at a silver jubilee High Mass in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, Gladesville, at 11 a.m. to-morrow to mark the 25th anniversary of annual pilgrimages to the church by the Italian community on the Feast of Our Lady of Terzifo.

At 2.30 p.m. he will bless extensions to Monte Sant' Angelo convent school, North Sydney.

The Apostolic Delegate, Archbishop Carboni, will officiate at the festival meeting of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St. Vincent's Church, Ashfield, to-morrow at 2.30 p.m.

The new £12,000 Brother Henry Testimonial Pavilion at St. Joseph's College, Hunter's Hill, will be opened at 2.30 p.m. to-day by the Lord Mayor, Alderman P. D. Hills.

A first-grade G.P.S. game between St. Joseph's and Sydney Grammar will follow the ceremony.

An intensive drive to relieve distress among unemployed and homeless men is being undertaken in Sydney under the direction of the Rev. Father T. Dunlea, spiritual director of the Matthew Talbot Hostel. A mission for such men will begin in the chapel of the Maternal Heart of Mary, Ozanam House, 7 Young Street, on Sunday, August 1, at 3 p.m.

QUEENSLAND VISIT

The Presbyterian Moderator, the Right Rev. Roland C. Lawton, will preach at Warwick, Queensland, to-morrow morning.

The Rev. Bruce Gentle, Chaplain of The Scots College, Bellevue Hill, will preach at both services at Scots Church to-morrow.

At St. Stephen's, Macquarie Street, the Rev. Alex Tulloch will preach at the morning service to-morrow, and the Rev. Gordon Powell in the evening.

To-morrow and at the lunch-hour service on Wednesday, Tonic Prayer Card No. 100 will be issued. Since the first card was issued in September, 1952, be issued. Since the first card was issued in September, 1952, 255,000 have been distributed, and during that time £4,400 has been raised at Wednesday lunch-hour services for various causes.

Next Wednesday evening at St. Andrew's Scots Church, Rose Bay, the Rev. Thomas McDougal, formerly minister of the church, will be inducted to the office of Director of Religious Instruction in Public Schools, in succession to the Rev. J. R. Barrie.

The President of the Methodist Conference, the Rev. A. G. Mansfield, is visiting the Riverina Mission area.

He will preach at Wyalong to-morrow.

FOUNDATION STONE

Sir Edward Hallstrom will set the foundation stone of extensive additions to "Waddell House," Milton Street, Ashfield, this afternoon at 3.30. This hospital is under the control of the Central Methodist Mission.

The Rev. R. C. Coleman will preach in Wesley Chapel to-morrow morning and Dr. F. H. Rayward in the Lyceum Hall at night.

At a Pleasant Sunday Afternoon in the Lyceum Hall to-morrow, Major-General the Rev. C. A. Osborne will speak on "Thoughts on Great Lives."

At Mosman Methodist Church at 6 p.m. to-day, there will be a tea for church workers at which the Rev. Alan Walker will speak. Mr. Walker will also address a public meeting at 8 p.m.

He will preach in the church to-morrow at 11, and will speak at a Pleasant Sunday Afternoon there at 3 p.m. At 7 p.m. Mr. Walker will speak in Mosman Town Hall.

The Chairman of the Congregational Union, the Rev. H. T. Wells, will preach to-morrow morning at Roseville Church, and at Concord for the 75th Annual service.

The Rev. C. Denis Ryan, President of the Congregational Union of Australia and New Zealand, will leave on July 31 for America as the leading Congregational delegate to the World Council Assembly. The Rev. Norman Anderson, of Summer Hill Congregational Church is also a delegate.

The Rev. George Woolcock will preach at both services at Pitt Street Congregational Church to-morrow. Next Wednesday a quarterly tea will be held at 6 p.m. and a devotional service and Communion at 7.30.

service and Communion at 7.30.

U.S. VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rutherford will arrive in Sydney by air from the United States next Wednesday to conduct a campaign for the Churches of Christ in N.S.W. A welcome tea will be held in the City Temple at 6 p.m.

Next Friday the Women's Conference of Churches of Christ in N.S.W. will hold the half-yearly rally in the City Temple. Mrs. Rutherford will be the speaker at 2 p.m. At 6 o'clock there will be a youth tea, followed by a youth rally at 7.30 addressed by Mr. Rutherford.

A lecture on "The Missionary and the Administration" will be given by the Rev. F. A. Marsh, under the auspices of the National Missionary Council of Australia next Tuesday in the City Mission Hall, 103 Bathurst Street, at 7 p.m.

The President of the Baptist Union, the Rev. F. F. Heather, will conduct the Church Anniversary at Dungog to-night. To-morrow Mr. Heather will preach at Dungog and Thalaba.

The Chief Secretary of the Salvation Army, Colonel William Cooper, and Mrs. Cooper, will conduct an A.B.C. broadcast from 2BL to-morrow morning.

(Religious Advertisements on page 21.)