DISCOVER

From the Bay to the Battlefield, is a World War 1 commemoration project funded by the Australian Governments ANZAC Centenary Local Grants Program.

Visit sites in and around Holdfast Bay, discover large scale imagery, and read the unique stories of the men and woman who served in WW1, and once lived in Holdfast Bay.

SITES

It is intended that the sites indicated on this map will remain constant throughout the project.

The imagery will change as we continue to research and uncover the unique stories of the men and women from Holdfast Bay who served and contributed to the war effort.

Research for the project has been undertaken by Holdfast Bay History Centre.

Imagery courtesy of The City of Holdfast Bay collection and The State Library of South Australia.

Do you have an image and a story to tell about a relative who contributed to the WW1 war effort and once lived in Holdfast Bay? To share your images and stories call the Holdfast Bay History Centre on 8296 7500 or email history@holdfast.sa.gov.au
