

Photo by

G. W. Bloomfield.

THE GRAVE OF TOMMY WINDICH.

AN ABORIGINAL'S GRAVE.

(See Illustrations.)

On this page is an illustration of the

On this page is an illustration of the grave of Tommy Windich the aboriginal so popular with Sir John and the late Mr. Alexander Forrest. The monument bears the inscription, "Erected by John and Alexander Forrest, in me-

John and Alexander Forrest, in me-memory of Tommy Windich, born near Mount Stirling, 1840. Died at Esperance Bay, 1876. He was an aboriginal of Western Australia of great intelligence and fidelity, who accompanied them on four exploring expeditions into the interior of Australia, two of which were from Perth to Adelaide."

(See letterpress herewith.)