

Wynyard's gesture

In the presence of a representative gathering at Wynyard yesterday afternoon, the Warden (Cr. L. H. Bauld) unveiled a Tasmanian sesquicentenary memorial, which takes the form of a marble plaque set in a concrete base, with a map of Tasmania in relief on the front. Picture shows the Warden performing the unveiling ceremony, and (inset) the plaque.

—ADVOCATE