The annual meeting of the members of the Literary Institute on Monday evening next. The annual report and balance sheet will be submitted, as also election of officers and committee will take place.

The friends of Mr. Allan Hodgkinson will be sorry to learn that he at the present time is under medical attention.

The senior footballers are proving themselves something to be considered this season.

The violin used by Mr. E. Lonesborough at the old-time dance recently held, was the one used by his father in his musical day. Mr. Casey first purchased the violin in Sydney nearly seventy years ago. Many have enjoyed the strain of its music in the district during that time.

Mr. W. Caffery J.P., last Saturday replanted a "Soldiers' Memorial tree", at the junction of the roads opposite the Literary Institute. A Kurrajong tree was planted there five years ago, but did not seem suitable to the climate, and this did not prove satisfactory to Mr. Caffery. During the five years the first tree was growing in the enclosure, Mrs. J. McGuire and family never once failed to place a bunch of flowers at the foot of the tree on Anzac Day. The home is to be commended for its act of sympathy.
