

WAYVILLE SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL.

A large and representative gathering of soldiers, relatives, and residents of the district were present at the Wayville Institute on Wednesday evening when a Soldiers' Memorial Porch was formally dedicated and a memorial tablet unveiled. The porch consists of Teatree Gully freestone, and has been erected at the main entrance of the institute. The Chairman of the Wayville Vigilance Committee (Mr. W. C. Torode) supervised the work, the money for which was raised by local subscription. The tablet is on the wall inside the porch, and is composed of polished Swedish granite. The number of enlistments from the Wayville district was 109, and the tablet contains the names of the following soldiers who fell on active service:— R. Chadwick, A. H. Chapman, E. G. T. Clark, A. Growther, E. E. Ellis, C. H. F. Davies, L. V. Duxbury, R. C. Griffiths, A. J. Hopkins, P. E. Jackson, A. L. Miller, H. A. Follard, and A. E. Sheard. The name of H. G. Collins has not yet been included. The porch was declared open by the Mayor of Unley (Mr. W. H. Langham), and the tablet was unveiled by Col. S. Pice Weir D.S.O. They were received by a guard of honour consisting of local Red Cross workers, in charge of Mrs. J. Rollantyne (President) and Mrs. V. C. Torode (secretary). The "Lag Post" was sounded by Bugler Allan Dale. Mr. H. J. Deebie then handed the porch and tablet over to the trustees, of whom Mr. W. Muirden is Chairman. A selection of vocal items was contributed by Capt. A. Forte, Misses E. Moore, K. Tomlinson, E. Connors, and Mr. J. Saunders, and Miss E. Alder recited. The staff of Messrs. Charles Moore & Co. were responsible for the decorations in the hall. The secretaries were Messrs. W. H. Marshall and B. A. Meyers.
