

METHODIST CHURCH HONOR BOARD.

The Methodist Church was crowded on Sunday evening when in addition to the usual service, the unveiling of the Church Honor Board took place. The church was very prettily decorated with flags, etc., for the occasion, and the musical arrangements reflected great credit upon Mr. Gould and the singers. The Rev. E. W. Hyde delivered a special and most impressive sermon, at the conclusion of which he called upon Mr. C. J. Hamilton, "Dromana," who has the names of four of his sons on the Board, two of whom have paid the supreme sacrifice, to unveil the Board.

Mr. Hamilton, in unveiling the Board, made feeling reference to the part the boys were taking in the war.

The Honor Board contains the following names:—H. E. Buckpitt, H. J. Cooksley, C. G. Cooksley, R. G. Ellicott, V. T. Ellicott, P. C. Crewe, A. Garley, S. Harris, C. L. Hamilton, C. A. Hamilton, H. P.
