WAMBERAL.

(From Our Correspondent.)

The ceremony of unveiling the local Honor Roll, erected in the School of Arts by the School of Arts Committee, took place in that building on Saturday afternoon, 15th instant, in the presence of a representative gathering of the local people and visitors. Mr. Edwards presided, and opened the proceedings by requesting those present to sing one verse of the National Anthem. An apology was received from Colonel Tedder, who was unavoidably absent. The Chairman commented upon the purpose for which they had assembled, referred to the parents of the boys who had fallen in the great war in eulogistic terms, and explained the financial statement of the Honor Roll.

Mrs. Pockley performed the unveiling ceremony, the audience, at the request of the Chairman, standing in silence for the space of one minute. Very appropriate and sympathetic addresses were given by Mr. E. J. Loxton, M.P., Rev. Peek, and Mr. Weiss, all of whom were listened to with the utmost at-The Chairman, tention and respect. after thanking all those persons who had rendered assistance prior to, and throughout the ceremony, closed the meeting by requesting all present to sing one verse of the National Anthem, A hearty vote of thanks to the Chairman brought a very nice, though somewhat painful, ccremony to an end. The names of the soldiers inscribed on the Roll are :- A. Bean, J. Farrell, М. Farrell, C. Martin, F. Ritchie, F. Weiss, E. Weiss.

The Rev. Peek, the newly-appointed clergyman of the Terrigal Parish, officiated in St. Paul's Church of England, on Easter Sunday. The ladies of the Guild had spared no efforts to make the Church attractive with appropriate deChurch attractive with appropriate decorations, and were rewarded by a large congregation being present, upwards of 40 communicants partaking of the Sacrament. The Rev. Peek is apparently being well received in this portion of the new Parish.
