

RIVERTON.

Through the tangible gratitude of several town-folk towards the Riverton Roll of Honour Committee and the soldiers who enlisted from this district, photographs in framed groups of those who joined the colours here were obtained and presented to the citizens of Riverton and district. The unveiling and handing over of these historic souvenirs was fittingly accomplished on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large concourse of citizens at the institute. All the business premises were closed specially for the occasion. Mr. R. H. Hosking presided, and in a few words stated the reason for the meeting. Mrs. Wm. Cairns then, with an appropriate speech, unveiled the six large framed groups, each containing ten photographs, including that of Surgeon-Captain H. W. B. Cairns, Chaplain-Captain A. W. Webb, Lieuts. R. T. Griffen and E. G. Willis, Nurse D. E. Baker, Staff-Sgt. K. C. Baker, Sgts. H. S. Elliott, H. J. Jones, and A. B. Webb, Cpls. K. S. Latter and N. Metrick, Lce.-Cpls. N. E. B. Scholz, N. W. Kelly, and J. D. Donovan, Ptes. G. W. Davis, M. M., T. Sheridan, R. D. Kirk, F. L. Campaign, S. Sheridan, W. McEoy, B. A. J. Duldig, J. H. Parnell, J. M. Parnell, J. A. Hoffman, A. G. Kemp, P. J. McLaurin, L. Maher, R. B. Gray, J. G. Kelly, N. G. Kelly, A. G. Arthur, P. S. Hooper, S. R. Harris, H. C. Kelly, W. S. Kelly, R. A. Kelly, J. J. Griffen, O. C. Griffen, A. B. Mills, S. R. Jones, C. T. Jones, F. J. Bailey, A. A. Bailey, G. W. Bailey, F. Fernandez, R. G. Uppill, S. Uppill, R. Harris, H. Harris, B. L. Gregory, A. E. Seery, C. W. Fernandez, C. N. Knauerhase, P. R. Scovell, C. Rogers, N. Mitchell, A. G. Pfeiffer, R. N. Owen, C. D. V. Whittaker, G. W. Fraser. Rev. Father Maher, of Marrabel, Eudunda, Tarlee, and Riverton, made an eloquent speech on the love of freedom, love of country, and love of King that were inseparably associated with the originals of the photographs unveiled that afternoon. He regarded the example set by these gallant Australians as being the foundation of Australian traditions and of great historic moment. Rev. Geo. Hall also spoke in stirring terms, and the Rev. G. A. Shetliffe supported. Mr. H. A. Davis, chairman of the Institute Committee, on behalf of that body and the citizens of the town and district, accepted the handsome groups, and assured the donors that every care would be taken of their valuable and priceless presents. Mr. W. K. Bednall supported these sentiments, as past president of the institute. Miss L. Pfeiffer and Mrs. W. R. Fisher rendered appropriate solos, and the National Anthem concluded a very impressive gathering.

In connection with the departure of Mr. Wm. Cairns from this community, the Masonic Lodge of Wooroora, on Wednesday evening of last week, wished him farewell, and marked their admiration for his sterling work in the Craft by him farewell, and marked their admiration for his sterling work in the Craft by presenting him with a Post-Organist's jewel. On Tuesday evening, a smoke social to Mr. Cairns was held in the lodge-room of the institute, when a gathering of representative men from the town and district testified to the sincere respect entertained for Mr. Cairns. Cr. H. A. Davis, J.P., occupied the chair, and he was supported by the guest of the evening and the chairman of the Rhyie District Council (Mr. R. Wakeham, J.P.). Dr. Glynn, Messrs W. E. Bowden, J. H. Hassell, A. E. Rowe, A. E. Mitchell, R. H. Edwards, and R. H. Hosking bore testimony to the goodwill and esteem felt for Mr. Cairns, and Mr. Wakeham, on behalf of the town-folk and district, handed the guest a case of pipes. Refreshments were partaken of, and solos were contributed by the Rev. G. Shetliffe, and Messrs. W. B. Goodes, E. Hannaford, and J. Burrows.