The foundation state of the Presbyterian Church, contiguous to the present building, in Hobart Town, was taid posterior by His Excellency Lieutena towerhar a scatt. A detachment of the 21st Regime at attended, accompanied by the usual sand, with the addition of the Highborn Bacquier, the their route from the Barracks to the route, a certification airs were played; into the spirit of which the Scots people seemed most confield, to enter. A large concourse of the behavior at a seembled. The Rev. Mr. Macantaur commenced the proceedings with a prayer for the success and prosperity of the undertaking, and he was followed by several other Centhenia. After this, a bottle, containing various course; the present and late reigns, were deposited in a cuvity made for the purpose; on which was a plate with the following inscription:— HUMUSA ECCLESIA, PRIMESIA LAPIDUM.

PROSE A LAPIDEM,
POSSULT
VIR ILLE PRAICLARUS
GEORGIUS ARTHUR
PRAEFECTUS
NN. SAL. MDUCCNNAW

ANN. SAL. MDUCCXNXIV.

His Excellency then haid the stone in due form, and briefly expressed his best wishes for the prosperity of the cause. The plan of the building was designed by Messrs. JACKSON and ADDISON.